

That Train Don't Stop Here Anymore

The SteelDrivers

I keep waitin' for you to want me
like you always did before but ya pass right by like you don't know me
I guess that train don't stop here anymore

What's the matter little darlin' what makes you wanna run do you hear a new voice callin' or is it something that I've done

I keep waitin' for you to want me
like you always did before
but ya pass right by like you don't know me
I guess that train don't stop here anymore

I don't like livin' without lovin'
I don't like what's goin' through my mind could your heart be set on something a little farther down the line

I keep waitin' for you to want me
like you always did before
but ya pass right by like you don't know me
I guess that train don't stop here anymore

I keep waitin' for you to want me
but ya pass right by like you don't know me
I guess that train don't stop here anymore

I guess that train don't stop here anymore
