

Ready For It

The Stills

I'll see you in a second, a dirty little minute
That was an hour ago, don't censor me
So picture me, there's no change the sun goes down

I'm ready for it...
Days seem to pass, crowds move too fast
About an hour ago, we hit a tree
We bruised your knee, keep on saying you love me

I'm ready for it... Loving me is a black hole
