The Stone

I'm just a barf of this civilized world
A spit on its innocent face Live no steady life, won't hide myself behind a silly mask Don't fit in the modern life it don't have what I need
So I've got

Brain Damage - Brain Damage

Cloned good servants wearing a smiling mask Slowly hanged to their own tie Rules echo in their heads, thoughts stand still or they just go around Their eyes aren't blind but they cannot see that they are used hard for free I think they have

Brain Damage - Brain Damage

Make a trip into my brain, you'll get lost to its countless mazes
Those weird dreams will blind your eyes
You call me insane because I think with my own brain
I won't live with those fucking steady thoughts
So I've got

Brain Damage - Brain Damage

Look into my eyes
Don't stare at empty walls
You act like living dead Haven't you ever tried to live the real life?

Now it's time to wake from eternal nightmare and breathe fresh air
Don't you think it's finally the time to get free?

Time to get free

Brain Damage - Brain Damage

Rip off that mask and look in the mirror is there anything you have seen before?
You could see all your feelings and thoughts you haven't had a chance to show Wake from your nightmares look life into the eye
Are you ready to cry I've got
