

Beat That Guy

The Stooges

Burning charge of heart drops like a stone
One you realize you're really alone.
Tired as the light in the dull sky
But I gotta find a way to beat that guy,
I got to find a way.

Feel I gotta bite if I'm gonna bark,
Can't think about slinking out in the dark
You lay down the lot or lay down to die
I better find a way,
I got to find a way to beat that guy.

Running out of space, I've run out of time,
I'm running out of reasons, though I don't know why.
Feel I've got to push, feel I've got to shove,
I got to find a way to get that love,
Rather find a way to beat that guy.
