The Stooges

Anytime I want I got a right to move No matter what they say Anytime I want I got a right to move No matter what they say

I got a right, I got a right to move Anytime I want, anytime I got a right, I got a right to move Anytime I want

Anytime I want I got a right to sing No matter what they say Anytime I want I got a right to sing No matter what they say

I got a right, I got a right to sing Anytime I want I got a right, I got a right to sing Anytime I want
