

Open Up and Bleed

The Stooges

I been pushed.
I been shoved too long
They even tried to buy my song
But it ain't gonna be that way no more

I been hurt. I been shut inside
I've even tried to fix and die
But I'm just gonna kick out thru that door

Yeah, tell me lies, and place your lovin' arms around me

I've been caged, like a wild cat
By fools who dont know where its at
But it aint gonna be that way no more
In my head theres a cry of pain
I wear my heart out and kill my brain
But im just kick out thru that door

Yeah, tell me lies and place your lovin' arms around me

Don't it make ya, make ya wanna open up and bleed?

I'm a bitter man
But anyone can see
You wont get me
Down on my knees
