

Unfriendly World

The Stooges

An old movie magazine
Go and wrap it in between
Pages yellowing with time,
It's tearing up my mind.

Plastic snowflake souvenir,
A city far from here,
But it hasn't moved in years,
I'm breaking up inside.

Hang on to your girl,
Cause this is an unfriendly world.

Birthday cards from years ago
These will kill you slow.
Is it worth this pain to grow?
I guess I'll never know.

Christmas toys and picture frames,
All the photos knocked away,
Not to live with day by day,
Just a walk down memory lane.

So hang on to your girl,
Cause this is an unfriendly world.

Business man with nasty tricks
Followers of 666,
Fame and fortune made me sick
And I can't get out.

Out the window there's a view
Grassy hills and flowers too
Lovers of the chosen view
So maybe me and you

An old movie magazine
Go and wrap it in between
Pages yellowing like me
Will I ever be free?

Hang on to your girl,
Cause this is an unfriendly world.
Hang on to your girl,
Cause this is an unfriendly world.
