

If I Fall

The Story So Far

Clear your head, so self-centered
Yet you're very well read
Leave your bed, all that oil gonna kill you dead
Got my check, lost my center in a deep mud debt
I know you're upset I'll stop it, I'll quit

My choices let down some of my closest people
But I'm gaining back ground
I'm forcing myself to get better by Fall
Will you be there if I fall?

I never seem to have it in line
I don't think you've ever seen me fine
Give me space, make me pace, let me whine
Saving face at the cost of what I owe
Getting big, watch the clock where'd the time go
Cut it short when I'm scared of what I can't grow
All these loose ends that I can't sew
What do I care, what do you know

My choices let down some of my closest people
But I'm gaining back ground
I'm forcing myself to get better by Fall
Will you be there if I fall?
My choices let down some of my closest people
But I'm gaining back ground
I'm forcing myself to get better by Fall
Will you be there if I fall?

I'm sick of all the wack shit you're getting into Think I'll bounce, I gotta go
I'm stuck inside a place where I can't love you
You feel the vibe, I think you know
There's not a single place that I can go to Without noise that I chose
I'm stuck inside and my stomach's throwing up now
From yellow pills and purple glow

Hold me down
Help me drown
