

Unwanted

The Strange Familiar

If I throw away all the garbage in my life
Happiness will come to me
If I throw away every problem
Every pain will be undone
It would be so easy to clean the slate
You could be so easily erased

I think I'll just get in the car and drive
100,000 miles
Leave everything behind
Unwanted

If I leave you standing there
Throw away all my cares
I would paint a picture
The perfect vanilla sky
I would paint a picture and then I would step inside
So nothing could touch me there
It would be so easy to clean the slate
You could be so easily erased

I think I'll just get in the car and drive
100,000 miles
Leave everything behind
I think I'll book a flight
One-way ticket out
Put you out of my mind forever now
Unwanted

Unplug
Detach
I'll remove
Uproot
I'll unplug
Detach
I'll remove, I'll remove every stain of you
I know I'm better off without you
I know I'm better off without you
I'm better off without you
I know I'm better off without you

I wonder for a moment
Will I ever cry
A tear for you my dear
And all I left behind?
The life left
Unwanted
