

Give Me The Love

The String Cheese Incident

Give me the love I'd have,
for all my enemies
Give me the love I'd have,
for those I cannot please

Give me the love that knows all the love there is Give me the love that knows all that love can give

That's all I ask of you That's all I need from you
That's all I ask of you

From the sin that separates, and from the doubts
That have plagued my coming in and going out May there be a bed of mercy, to lay my anger down To fill the emptiness, where there is no sound

That's all I ask of you...
