

Lost

The String Cheese Incident

She was a smart girl
But she didn't think
The well was full
Still there's nothing to drink

Got some money
Still don't make no sense
How a girl like this can live
Her life without no common sense

She's lost, la, la, la, lost
Got a friend
That works too much
Trying hard to find the end to the means
Came from nothing
Has got nothing to lose
Except he's losing sight of what is true in all this busy life
For Lost, la, la, la, lost
Lost, la, la, la, lost

Maybe it's me but I can't see
Why sometimes we choose to be blind
Looking away going day by day
And stumblin' around in the dark
Spend our lives
Wasting time
Keepin' busy towards that life
So afraid
Slowing down
Stop and take a look around and see what can be found
Lost, la, la, la, lost
Lost, la, la, la, la, lost
