

Hard to Say No

The Strypes

Climbing over the back wall
Honey you keep fallin' over yourself
Babe you're just like your mother
You didn't pick it up off the shelf

Excuse me but girl you amuse me,
So why don't you lose the innocent face?
Baby it ain't that I'm lazy
But you could just save me
From runnin' the race

'Cos it's so hard to say no
to a girl with those little black pumps

Shake it, you gotta take it
Baby don't break it
Make me believe
It's over, gimme the shoulder
Gimme it colder
I wanna weep

Heartbreak, hit me with heartbreak
Girl I've been dreamin'
Dreamin' of this
Disaster, my medicine's laughter
I'm only after your little kiss

'Cos it's so hard to say no
to a girl with those little black pumps

Climbing over the back wall
Honey you keep fallin' over yourself
Babe you're just like your mother
You didn't pick it up off the shelf

'Cos it's so hard to say no
to a girl with those little black pumps
