

Mystery Man

The Strypes

Baby, why you gotta act so shy?
You drive me crazy,
When you look into my eyes.

Baby, I ain't trying to fill you with doubt,
But I'm lazy,
So you just gotta figure me out.

You don't know my name,
And I ain't gonna tell you cause it's not my game,
I've got you in the palm of my hand,
Baby I could be your Mystery Man.

Baby, I ain't trying to fill you with doubt,
But I'm lazy,
So you just gotta figure me out.

You don't know my name,
And I ain't gonna tell you cause it's not my game,
I've got you in the palm of my hand,
Baby I could be your Mystery Man.

You don't know my name,
And I ain't gonna tell you cause it's not my game,
I've got you in the palm of my hand,
Baby I could be your Mystery Man.
