Baby, why don't you hit me with lightning, So I can bottle it up and save it for a rainy day, Baby, you know this loving is frightening, But it's only calm before the tempest gets on it's way.

We could be the perfect storm,
I feel it coming and it won't be long,
We could be the perfect storm,
So let it rain.

Baby, why don't you show me your thunder,
So I can put it on the shelf and dust it when the sky goes blac k,
Baby, your loving makes me wonder,
If I step outside will I ever feel the need to turn back.
