

Just Like Jude

The Subways

Walking through the back streets
Hoping that you'll see me
So I make my dreaming real
And if I miss my train
I'll happily take the blame
I'll be making my excuses feel
Like I'm lost in the Atlantic
Always getting seasick
Water water everywhere
Born with all the bad bones
Always in a new home
Will I settle down somewhere

Right now I'm calling out to you
It's like you've always got that deep sky blue
Look of wayward dreaming in your eyes
Now I'm feeling just like (Jude)
Now I'm feeling just like
Now I'm feeling just like

Treat me like a rag doll
Throw me in a dark hole
I don't even really care
As long as I can stay here
As long as I can make it
Anything you say is fair

Right now I'm calling out to you
It's like you've always got that deep sky blue
Look of wayward dreaming in your eyes
Now I'm feeling just like (Jude)
Now I'm feeling just like
Now I'm feeling just like
