

What You Say

The Suicide Machines

I don't need your criticisms i don't want you idealisms sick and tired of your empty promises i don't care what you say

the things that you say to me carry no weight you turn it around on me with what you say everything has to be always your way that's how it seems to me that's what i say

i don't care about your virtues i don't care about your standards can't be yourself cause you're too lame to be

why do you always have to make problems? think about the words you say before you open your mouth and spit 'em out feel the pain of words

i don't need your idealisms
