

Change Your Mind

The Summer Set

Cigarettes, American beauty
Young corvette, a heartbreaker running wild
Running wild

Blonde ambition, black leather jacket
Joy Division, thunderstorm, out all night
Out all night

I'm gonna steal your heart before it kills me
I'm gonna go too far even if it kills me

Hey you, queen of the cool
Something 'bout you making me lose my mind
Lose my mind
Hey you, rock and roll dress
Hard to impress, baby I'll change your mind
Change your mind

Girl, gonna change your mind, mind, mind, mind
Change your mind, mind, mind, mind
Girl, gonna change your mind, mind, mind, mind
Change your mind, mind, mind, mind

Midnight teen a booth in the corner, members only
Talking shit with your friends
All your friends

Heartbeat pounding, this is the moment
Feelers courage, baby just let me in Let me in

I'm gonna steal your heart before it kills me
I'm gonna go to far even if it kills me

Hey you, queen of the cool
Something 'bout you making me lose my mind
Lose my mind
Hey you, rock and roll dress
Hard to impress, baby I'll change your mind
Change your mind

Girl, gonna change your mind, mind, mind, mind
Change your mind, mind, mind, mind
Girl, gonna change your mind, mind, mind, mind
Change your mind, mind, mind, mind

I'm gonna steal your heart before it kills me
I'm gonna go to far even if it kills me
