

Jean Jacket

The Summer Set

We were younger than ever
Sitting in the back of a corvette
And all I remember
Was lying naked in our summer sweat

And I was falling in love
While you were fighting the weekend war
We were on top of the world
But you don't come around here anymore

Whenever I look back now
Forever nineteen somehow
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
I wish I couldn't drive you home
Listening to Thunder Road
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
Hey where did you go?

We were younger than ever
Doing 110 on the boulevard
Swore we'd never surrender
We found faith in a stolen car

And I was falling in love
While you were fighting the weekend war
We were on top of the world
But you don't come around here anymore

Whenever I look back now
Forever nineteen somehow
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
I wish I couldn't drive you home
Listening to Thunder Road
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
Hey where did you go?

(Go, go, go-go)
Go (go, go, go)
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?
(Go, go, go-go)
Go (go, go, go)
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?

And I was falling in love
While you were fighting the weekend war
We were on top of the world
But you don't come around here anymore

Whenever I look back now

Forever nineteen somehow
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
I wish I couldn't drive you home
Listening to Thunder Road
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
I still think about you
Hey where did you go?

(Go, go, go, go)
Go (go, go, go)
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
(I still think about you)
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?
(Go, go, go, go)
Go (go, go, go)
(I still think about you)
Cause when I put on my jean jacket
Put on my jean jacket
Hey where did you go?
