

Legendary

The Summer Set

When I was a kid, I'd fly around in Peter with men's shirt Don't be afraid to die, cause to die would be an awfully big in vention

Today I stopped believing, and my friends say they're so bored of me

I used to be a real boy, with real plans, now I'm just reality
TV

Used to be your knight in shining armor, and I'd rescue you from hell

Daily I stare into the mirror, and I say to myself,
I've spent too many nights watching "How I Met Your Mother" alone

Now I'm searching for my yellow umbrella, oh then I'll take her
home

Baby I just want to be legendary

Yeah we all wanna be legendary to somebody

Yeah somebody oh

I'm done chasing actresses

I'm full of love and they're all full of shit

Now I'm stumbling out the bar

One more fame-monster story, I'll be sick

One day I stop believing in all the ones

The magic had died

I just need to accept, friends grow up and lovers will lie

Yeah I used to be James Dean, now it's celebrity rehab hell

I swear that I could be amazing, I just need a little help

And I've spent too many nights watching "How I Met Your Mother" alone

Now I'm searching for my yellow umbrella, oh then I'll take her
home

Baby I just want to be legendary

Yeah we all wanna be legendary to somebody

Yeah somebody oh

Da-da-da-ra-ra-ra-ra

Da-da-da-ra-ra-ra-ra

Da-da-da-ra-ra-ra-ra

Da-da-da-ra-ra-ra-ra

Da-da-da-ra-ra-ra-ra

I've spent too many nights watching "How I Met Your Mother" alone

Now I'm searching for my yellow umbrella, oh then I'll take her
home

Baby I just want to be legendary

Yeah we all wanna be legendary to somebody
To somebody oh
