

Passenger Seat

The Summer Set

It's 3am, I'm outside your window
Jump the fence, dad won't ever know
Fell in love with you in my passenger seat

And then you took control of the radio
Turned up all the songs I know
Oh, I'm risking everything and that's alright with me

Roll down the window, never get caught
Baby, no one will know

Just sweep me off my feet again
My new addiction, I'll be waiting
I've been addicted to this story of a girl
Who can help this boy meet world
And sweep me off my feet again

Back seat down, fog on the windows
Sun came out about an hour ago
Then, I kissed your head
Just like I always did

And let you take control of the radio
I gotta get you home
I swear your parents won't know
Me and you've got something special
Perfectly dysfunctional

Just sweep me off my feet again
My new addiction, I'll be waiting
I've been addicted to this story of a girl
Who can help this boy meet world
And sweep me off my feet again

And I'm wasted on you girl
And I've never seen so sure
Don't wanna say goodnight
You and I could take another ride

We can go the long way home
So we can be alone
Oh baby, no one will know

Just sweep me off my feet again
My new addiction, I'll be waiting
I've been addicted to this story of a girl
Who can help this boy meet world
And sweep me off my feet again

Just sweep me off my feet again
My new addiction, I'll be waiting
I've been addicted to this story of a girl
Who can help this boy meet world
And sweep me off my feet again
