

Commercial Breakdown

The Sunshine Underground

Yeah
oh Maybe I'm right
oh maybe I'm wrong We can fight for one single way to get along And we've all got to not shake down!
And I've only missin' a point
And I can't search the way to try to telling lies

So I'll tell my problem
You're never gonna get me
If I'm too be busy
A social conscience
I saw it on the tv
At least it keeps me busy

Oh maybe sometimes I find it hard to comply with people that don't look you in the eye and it's because all the commercial breakdown!
and i've only missin' a point is what the media's sayin' that is switching to

you're never gonna get me we're far too busy and so's your conscience what story gonna save me

oh and i used to think that these things happen for a reason i used to think that these things happen for a reason i used to think that these things happen for a reason
