Chained to Yesterday

The Supremes

Lonely nights Long and lonely nights Emptiness without your sweet caress I missed you so (I missed you so) More thn you ever know And after all this time, more than a year Without a single word, you just disappear And I'm chained, chained, chained I'm chained to yesterday I'm chained, chained, chained I'm chained to yesterday (You know I'm guilty, baby) I tried to call But darling, your number's been changed The operator said, "I'm sorry, but that's an unlisted name" I powdered each teardrop dry Before I rushed out the door I saw your best friend and asked where you've gone I said, "Tell me as a friend, did I do that man wrong?" I'm chained, chained, chained I'm chained to yestaerday I'm chained, chained, chained I'm chained to yesterday Ooh, ooh, ooh Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh Ooh, ooh, ooh Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh I felt so bad I even thought of suicide To erase the pain But I don't have the nerve to try But pity to your friends I showed That I was the last one to know Of how cold that you be, just leaving me With a heart full of love and you're holding the key I'm chained, chained, chained I'm chained to yestaerday I'm chained, chained, chained

I'm chained to yesterday

I'm chained, chained, chained

I'm chained to yestaerday
