

Don't Let My Teardrops Bother You

The Supremes

Don't let it
Teardrops bother you
Don't let it
Teardrops bother you
Don't let it

If I should shed a tear
It's just the love I'm showing
'Cause you're leaving here
If I should shed my pride
It's just to show how much
I love you so, and where you go

My love will be there with you
No matter where you are
Or if you find someone new
Long ago, I reeled my life to you
And I can change my heart
Even though we'll be apart

Don't let my teardrops bother you
The reason I'm crying is
I can't believe we're through
Oh, don't let my teardrops bother you
If you must leave me, do what you gotta do

Don't let it
No, no, no, no
Don't let it

If I should beg and plead
Ooh
It's just because of the love
And the need I have for you
If I should stall for time
It's just because I prayed
That you changed your mind and maybe find

There's something you're leaving behind
And maybe then you'll see
Where you've been blind
But if someone has managed to erase me
And if she's what you want
(if she's what you want)
If she's what you want to replace me

Don't let my teardrops bother you
The reason I'm crying is
I can't believe we're through
Don't let it
Don't let my teardrops bother you
If you must leave me, do what you gotta do
