I Can't Make It Alone

The Supremes

The best years of my life I placed into your hands Now suddenly you've made, you've made a change of plans That world we built for two does not include me now That world of pleasant dream is but a nightmare now.

On life's bridge we ran so gaily hand in hand But it's all over now, that bridge is all burned down Your love was all I could depend upon Who can I turn to now, now that you've gone.

I can't make it alone I need your love to call my own I can't run, I can't hide from this love that's inside All that I long to do is spend my life loving you Every minute, every hour, always.

The joyful things that we used to do That kept me right on, right on loving you Oh, playing funny, childish games Like running barefoot in the rain.

It was a special dream, a dream that I could feel But now you've gone, life's so unreal Your love is truly the only love I've known What am I to do now that you're gone.

I can't make it alone I need your love to call my own I can't run, I can't hide from this love that's inside All that I long to do is spend my life loving you Every minute, every hour, every day.

Days have come and gone but they never find you here Nights are twice as long, oh, without you, dear After many, many faithful years How could you cause me so many tears?

I can't make it alone I need your arms around me I can't make it alone I need your arms around me I can't make it alone Just can't make it alone.
