

Cabaret marionette

The Swan Bride

turn off the lights. we don't have to look. as if it wasn't enough that we have lost our minds nightmares are fine as long as you are sleeping. don't think that when you wake up they're gonna be less creepy

don't be shy. face it tonight.
let's lose our minds again

we took our bow, then left the stage & the show 'cause in the eyes of the crowd we were just dull looking toys no chance to find a way we can become alive.
so stop saying that you're sorry for what you're leaving behind.

don't be shy. face it tonight.
let's lose our minds again

2 runaway marionettes. we cut the strings
2 runaway marionettes. we cut the strings
2 runaway marionettes. we cut the strings 2 runaway marionettes. that's who we are...
