

More Or Less Depressed Vampire Protest Song

The Swan Bride

hey stranger, where did you leave your smile ? since we met last time you've kind of changed your style colours you always used to like were never black and white but now it's all you see tell me, what happened to you, mate your crazy escapades when did you start to fade ?

teethmarks on your neck
maybe you're not dead
but they made you obey
it's more or less the same...

bitten by a vampire, bitten by the empire sunset, you're waiting for the sunset all day long behind the curtain of black roses' thorns 'cause the sun may burn your eyes cool victim of our time
