

Pirate song

The Swan Bride

burning. the ship is burning the endless ocean will not be kind drinking when everything is sinking down i'll put a letter into this bottle of wine

dear lovers, dear hookers. farewell treasure of a dying clown. farewell i have to tell my secret now this ship is going down do you hear me anyone?!

singing about the life we're living about the dreams we had, treasures that we kept don't worry, i'd like to say i'm sorry but in this moment i have no regrets

bluesy smile of a dying clown. farewell i have to tell my secrets now
do you hear me anyone?!
