

Making Waves

The Swellers

I still think it's amazing
How much baggage I take in.
I used to let things slide.
Now I'm sick, it's contagious.
Write that shit then erase it
I'm on the other side
Of enemy lines.

So thanks a lot
I'm making waves, and you're not.
I'm done taking bad advice if that's fine by you.

I hate being so well versed.
Hard getting to the chorus.
Remember that bridge we burned?
I still have trouble getting over it.
Now I see it so clearly.
Everyone who is near me
They're showing the simple signs
Of the acquaintance kind.
It's not like true friends are so hard to find.

So thanks a lot
I'm making waves, and you're not.
I'm done taking bad advice if that's fine by you.
Fine by you
Fine by you
Fine by you

Now I can't stand a single word you say.
So if the world ends tonight,
We're better off that way

Now I can't stand a single word you say.
So if the world ends tonight,
We're better off that way

So thanks a lot
Cause I'm making waves, and you're not.
I'm done taking bad advice if that's fine by you.

You talk shit a lot
Cause I'm making waves and you're not.
I'm done taking bad advice if that's fine by you.
Fine by you
Fine by you
Fine by...
