

Black Rose

the.switch

Come on, ... I'll show you what it's like

She came and lay down
Lay down in front of me
Down by my ankles fell asleep but dream is mine Should I step aside or should I step right straight ahead?
The tears are coming down her face
But they're not hers

Now you see me creep inside
Please don't leave me,
Please don't try to hide aside

All these things I love
And all these things we breaking now apart
You hiding from me
Then Come on, I'll show you what it's like

Can't keep that feelings in my mind
Get down my knees and rub her face
She smells like black rose
I suppose
Those eyes can't see how i

Wish they opened right now,
Right at this moment
To see.. That..

I want to say I don't know
How can i break up with you Want you to see that..

Want you to feel...

You don't see me
You won't see me creep inside
Please just leave me,
Please just try to step aside

All those things we loved
And all those things we broke apart
I'm hiding from you
You'll never know
Know... what it's like
