

sun is shining on me
and i'm singing loud
that all the future seems brighter to me now all the snow is gone and everything's wakin' up i wish i could leave the ground for little while the grass, the trees new fresh breeze blows my mind away i feel in me

i feel a new life breakaway you need to be just little less pathetic to see that life is great with all you left behind

Watch me fly.. and fuck what i've done..
take my hand..
and believe in what i said..
