The Tallest Man on Earth

What do you want was never answered then some things were handed out

We got weird and fake instructions but somehow we planned around

Oh, then we got all nervous, baby, I don't have the heart like you

And so we listened now if nature were just loud enough and ran
And I know I shouldn't be here but I want to be your man
Suddenly I'm lost but I just want to be a part of true

So suddenly we are gone

Looking out for some wave

You and I, we belong on these wild and wonderful trails

You're just a singer wanting silence, I just have illegal thoughts

I will kill you if I take you but now this is not enough

Oh there will be a moment when I ask you to believe in love

And I could probably be patient but we just don't have
A hell a lot of time it's getting light and I just want you in the night

Oh, we will all be caught and they won't let me hang around with you

So suddenly we are gone

Looking out for some wave

You and I, we belong on these wild and wonderful trails

I could just leave tomorrow but baby letting you go

All these songs would be just of sorrow

And we have no idea but then what else do we know

We let it out to let it ride

And we are winners going out there as we're stealing dreamy thoughts

They will heal you when you find them and it's never just enough

Then we get all nervous, baby, I don't have a plan, do you?

So suddenly we are gone

Looking out for some wave

You and I, we belong on these wild and wonderful trails

I could just leave tomorrow but baby letting you go

All these songs would be just of sorrow

And we have no idea but then what else do we know

We let it out to let it ride
To let it ride
