

Steal Tomorrow

The Tallest Man on Earth

Well I give you all my rain
I give you all my sweet horizons
And another sense of lane

I have to say
It's just a way
To steal tomorrow

Hell I'm guilty of the crime
But like a bird above the Alcatraz
I'm whiter than your gown

I have to say
It's just a way
To steal tomorrow

I will dance and sway
While you dream away
Bring your curtain down
Then I'll burn this town
It's just a way to steal tomorrow

Well I tell you that I'm down
And now believin' by the tickets
Your messiah is in town

I have to say
It's just a way
To steal tomorrow

While we're riding on our plane
Well I have bought a special backpack
Just to run away from shame

I'll have to say
It's just a way
To steal tomorrow

I will dance and sway
While you dream away
Bring your curtain down
Then I'll burn this town
It's just a way to steal tomorrow

Hell I'm guilty of the crime
But like a bird above the Alcatraz
I'm whiter than your gown

I have to say
It's just a way
To steal tomorrow
