Aftermath

The Tea Party

Desperate to take lost in its wake time slips away to soon

Pleasures of fear drawing us near where could we go from hear waste what we want

we beg and we're bought and nothing is wrong with us life in these veins godless and stained glimpses of hope exist

Slanted advance threatened by chance time slips away to soon

waste what we want
we beg and we're bought
and nothing is wrong with us