Another holiday from all the vampires
And all the sycophants caught on the highwire
So sexy, sexy babe you know i need some
To pass the time away to get relief from
All this life that's filled with wanton tragedy

Just like a runaway with no esace zone You'd think i'd find a way you'd think i'd fake one But all my life's been filled with wanton tragedy

Where's my angels i'm a naked soul Where's my angels i'm a naked soul

So just for heaven's sake i'll try to face this It's just a chance you take to get a last kiss So sexy, sexy babe you know i need some To pass the time away to get relief from All this life that's filled with wanton tragedy

Where's my angels i'm a naked soul Where's my angels i'm a naked sould Now don't you hide from me Don't you hide from me Don't you hide from me

All my life's been filled with wanton tragedy

Where's my angels i'm a naked soul Where's my angels i'm a naked soul Now don't you hide from me Please don't
