Apathy

The Tea Party

you want to look at the edge of madness just to see to see you want to find what you're missing out on well come on over here child talk it all to me don't you come here wasting my time i'm going to make it just fine now you're bent on the edge of blindness what you trying to see? you want to walk with a soul of darkness but stepping on those coals you get those blisters on your feet well, don't you come here wasting my time i'm going to make it just fine can't there be some other way can't we make you stay

in apathy?

so take a chance a soul divided stance and bend before your needs the waiting room is full you've pressured and you've pulled and now your soul's tired crawling on the barbed wire so don't you come here wasting my time child i'm going to make it just fine

in apathy?

well can't there be some other way can't we make you stay in apathy? don't you feel it all the love? as below and so above apathy can't you feel it all the love? i feel apathy can't you feel it all the love? i feel apathy
