

The L.O.C

The Tea Party

I cry for mercy
Storm clouds gather in the sky
Please don't desert me

I'm twisting, I'm turning, the fire is burning in me
I'm listening, I'm learning, I'll search for the kingdom, I'll
see
Way beyond the veil I'll find the signs
And the line of control at the seat of the soul

I'm plagued with passion
As I walk toward the sun
I'll keep on asking Shine a light and show us what we are

I'm twisting, I'm turning, the fire is burning in me
I'm listening, I'm learning, I'll search for the kingdom, I'll
see
Way beyond the veil I'll find the signs
And the line of control at the seat of the soul

These tears, these memories
Fade like embers in the flame
Love and loss, it's all the same
It's all the same
Love and loss, it's all the same
It's all the same
Love and loss, it's all the same
It's just a game
Shine the light and show us what we are

I'm twisting, I'm turning, the fire is burning in me
I'm listening, I'm learning, I'll search for the kingdom, I'll
see
Way beyond the veil I'll find the signs
And the line of control at the seat of the soul
