

The Great Dominions

The Teardrop Explodes

Suddenly
I came to my senses
a night on fire
put out
all traces of feeling I'm
only concerned with looking concerned
I don't want to get my laces burned (0,57) we talked for hours
except for the fainting
we seemed so enchanted
but now
my expression is changing see
see for yourself I'm run down by a train I stand back from a shark attack and it's all the same mummy I've been fighting again (4x) I should have known you'd seek my opinion
from all over the country and out
to the great dominions careful
some of the blunders of history have been made that way I'm still stuck in this pickle jar
on a paper carpet
mummy I've been fighting again (8x)
