When I Dream

The Teardrop Explodes

I've been thinking about you I hope that you've been thinking about me I've been talking about you I've been talking about you in my sleep And when I dream I dream about you And when I scream I scream about you I go ba ba ba ba oh oh Oh I go I've been sad and ever sadder I've been living, living far away Now it's you I think it's true And I'm running, running, running back to stay And now I'm counting I'm counting for two And when I shout I shout about you I qo ba ba ba ba oh oh Oh I go Here you come again Playing with my feelings There you go again Playing with my heart And when I dream I dream about you And when I scream I scream about you I go ba ba ba ba oh oh
