

The Ghost of You

The Tears

I threw out the photographs
Like yesterdays flowers
I tried to erase the past
But it won't go away

I painted the second room and cleared out the basement and smelled some of your perfume on the scarf that you made the salvation army collected your things I gave them the jewelry all the bracelets and rings your clothes in black bin bags

I gave them away
I tried to move on but the ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays

I threw out the photographs
Like yesterdays flowers
I tried to erase the past
But it won't go away

I wake in the morning
And try to be brave
But it's hard to move on
When the ghost of you stays

Oh-oh-oh (6x)

The ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays
The ghost of you stays
