

Fuck Nicole

The Teenagers

You're just nineteen but already the bitchest queen your room's a mess
I'm not impressed
but damn you have the cutest dress

the world's not fair
you just can deal with your despair aspirin and alcohol are not enough to die, Nicole here's a party you've waited for makes a room for the perfect whore all your friends are arriving mainstream hits and magazines morning comes and you're not home hey Nicole, what have you done wash them off these memories

poor Nicole

aspirins and alcohol
this is a cocktail for Nicole
fk Nicole
is out of control
call Nicole
and fk Nicole
alcopops and ketamine
this is a cocktail for my teen
fk Nicole
is in my dream
that Nicole
is more than real

Don't call your mom
her baby's gone
you're in disgrace
in your black dress

dry your tears
get on your feet

morning comes and you're not home
hey Nicole, what have you done
wash them off these memories
poor Nicole
