

Want You Back (you know Suzie they say a lot of thing but you only know)

The Tellers

They say he's got the cutest voice in town,
And he and he and he is just the cutest boy in town,
So we're gonna do ooh ooh,
A rock'n'roll band for you,
Rock'n'roll band for you,

My mama told me you can sing like a bird,
And you and you and you could get all the girls in the world,
But it's for you ooh ooh,
That I made that rock'n'roll band for you,
Rock'n'roll band for you,

And did I tell you about that the song's been done,
But I want you back (I want you back)
That rose is turn turn turning black,
Wilting away hidden under my hat,

I can write words I've got loads of stories,
But if it's not about you then it's about you and me,
And take it easy girl,
ea ea ea easy girl,

And did I tell you about that the song's been done,
But I want you back (I want you back),
That rose is turn turn turning black,
Wilting away hidden under my bloody hat.

I'm like a king without his queen,
The poet without the spleen I'm like a captain without his men,
The writer without his pen (without his pen),
