

I'm Ready For Love

The Temptations

As I stand alone on this moon-full night
For the first time I feel alone in life
As I watched the moon kiss the starlit skies
I feel the need for your lips to press close to mine

For so long I've been afraid to love
But right now I feel a need for love
And you have the love, the love I need
Aw comfort me

And I'm ready for love
I'm truly ready for love
Your wonderful sweet, sweet love
And I'm ready for love

I tried to shield my heart from love tender touch
'Cause to lose a love would hurt so much
But as I softly walked in my solitude
I search my heart and I found there's a need for you

And for the first time I feel alone
'Cause I need a love to call my own
And only you have the love, the love I need
Aw comfort me

And I'm ready for love
I'm truly ready for love
Your wonderful sweet, sweet love
And I'm ready for love
I'm ready

And for the first time I feel alive
Have the tender love deep down inside
And just as soon as I see a smiling face
I rush into your warm embrace

Right now, I'm ready for love
I'm truly ready for love
Your wonderful sweet, sweet love
Right now, I'm ready for love

Comfort me, baby
I'm ready for love
Wonderful sweet, sweet love
