

I'm The Exception To The Rule

The Temptations

Each day you've got someone new
A new heart to break and leave feeling blue
For you're a handsome guy
Girls just can't pass you by

But I can, my friend
I'm the exception to the rule

I know you think I'm just acting the part
Of the girl with the cold, cold heart
And it won't take long for you to capture me
With your innocent but meaningful plea

But you won't capture me
I'm the exception to the rule

You tell me
Darling that's where you're wrong
That your love for me is, oh so strong
That you will soon, very soon make me give in

I know that nine girls out of every ten
Wants you to be their man
But there I am again
That one in ten

So it's useless for you to try and change me
Because I won't give in, my friend
You could fool all the girls with your lies
About you being so sweet and kind

But oh no, not me
I'm the exception to the rule

Give it up
I'm the one you can't fool
I'm the one
I'm the exception to the rule

Give it up
I'm the one you can't fool
I'm the one
The exception to the rule

Give it up
I'm the one you can't fool
I'm the one
I'm the one you can't fool
