

Please Return Your Love To Me

The Temptations

And, oh, baby, I cry myself to sleep at night
For fear of another holdin' you tight and oh, baby
I miss ya more with each passin' day
Every night on my knees I pray

Oh, please return your love to me, girl
Forgive me for the wrong I've done
Without your love, I'm just no good
For I am just a lonely one

I'm sorry for the wrong I've done
Now I know how it feels to lose that special someone
And oh baby, I need you more than words can say
Without your love I can't face another day

Oh please return your love to me, girl
Forgive me for the wrong I've done
Without your love, I'm just no good
I am just a lonely one

What I want you know is that
If there's a Heaven above you'll be my one and only love
And oh baby, I can't control the glow in me
Girl, come on and an' see about me

Oh, please return your love to me, girl
Forgive me for the wrong I've done
Without your love, I'm just no good
I am just a lonely one

I'm a lonely one
I'm a lonely one
I'm a lonely one
I'm just a lonely one

Oh please, return your love to me, girl
Forgive me for the wrong I've done
Without your love, I'm just no good
I am just a

Please, return your love to me, girl
Forgive me for the wrong I've done
Without your love, I'm just no good
I am just a lonely one
