

Dead Girls

The Texas Drag Queen Massacre

Have you seen the girls with the chelsea smiles,
On their faces,
Battered and bruised from the self abuse,
In special places,
Holes in their head but they're not dead,
Self-taught labotomy,
So hard to find but they are my kind,
These dead girls are for me.

They are the dead girls,
With tags on toe,
They are the dead girls,
And they never say no,
A horrifying midnight nec-romance,
God gave them another chance,
Dead girls,
Dead girls,
Wo Oh!

Have you seen the girls with the blood-stained curls,
And pretty white eyes,
In their black high heels,
The rotting flesh peels,
But they will never die,
Take a look at those brains as they rot away,
Females from the underworld,
Like "Dawn Of The Dead",
Aim for the head,
Of these drop dead gorgeous girls.

They are the dead girls,
With tags on toe,
They are the dead girls,
And they never say no,
A horrifying midnight nec-romance,
God gave them another chance,
Dead girls,
Dead girls,
Wo Oh!

Some girls are weird,
Some girls are strange,
Some girls are sick,
Some girls are deranged,
Some girls give presents,
Some girls give head,
Some girls are naughty,
But these are dead!

They are the dead girls,
With tags on toe,
They are the dead girls,
And they never say no,
A horrifying midnight nec-romance,
God gave them another chance,
Dead girls,
Dead girls,

Wo Oh!
