

Goddamn the Light

The Thermals

Take me
You only want the one that leaves you shaking
Take me
You only want the one that makes you crazy

It's been
So long I forget how to say it
It's been
So long I forgot I was waiting

My God the sun
My God the sin
My God the sun
Where have you been?

Take me
You only want the one that leaves you shaking
Take me
You only want the one that makes you crazy

It's been
So long I forgot I was waiting

My God the sun
My God the sin
My God the sun
Where have you been?

My God, oh my
Goddamn the sea
Eyes so deep you never see

Take me
You only want the one that leaves you shaking
Take me
You only want the one that makes you crazy

It's been
So long I forgot I was waiting

My God the sun
My God the sin
My God the sun
Where have you been?

My God the light
Goddamn the sea
Eyes so deep you'd never see

And it's been so long I forgot I was waiting
Now told, my mind is blown
Carry me, carry me, carry me home
Carry me, carry me, carry me home
Carry me, carry me, carry me through
Eyes so deep you'd never see through
Carry me away
Now strong

My mind is gone

And it's been so long I forgot I was waiting
