I Like Being A Woman

The Three Degrees

Say goodbye, that will never do Though sometimes I have wanted to Man, I'm crazy about you Though sometimes I wanted to leave you But that just won't do

Say hello to a brand new me Somewhere I read: "Woman must be free" I can't go that way I need my man more and more each day And I wanna say

I like being a woman I like being a girl I like being a woman Putting on head of big curls Just a girl...

Man, I'm yours, I am but a slave
When it comes to love like a big strong tape
Man, I'm crazy about you
Though sometimes I wanted to leave you
But that just won't do

Take my love, see how much I care I'll take my life like a bird in air But don't do that to me I'll probably fly right into a tree Can't you see?

I like being a woman I like being a girl I like being a woman Wearing diamonds and pearls Just a girl... Just a girl...

[Spoken monologue] You know, women's liberation is cool. I mean, it had it's good points and it's bad points. But you know sometimes... I just want to be loved, And that's why I become your slave. I don't want to be your equal, I just want to be a part of you. All you gotta do is treat me like you treat yourself. When I'm weak, I need you to be strong. I want you to take care of me. I want you to take care of me. I want you to love me like I'm gonna love you. I want you to need me like I need you. 'Cause baby, I want to respect you and everything about you 'Cause I want you. Just a girl, just a girl Just a girl Just a girl, just a girl (I like being a woman) Just a girl Just a girl, just a girl (I like being a woman) Just a girl Just a girl, just a girl (I like being a woman) Just a girl
