

My Simple Heart

The Three Degrees

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

I heard your reason why you're leavin',
Can't we talk it through, yeah
I know I hurt ya, you hurt me too
It's crazy what people can do to each other
When emotions start fillin' up inside your head
It gets so complicated, I get so frustrated
You forget to say the things that ought to be said

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

I'm not the school kid you fell in love with Somewhere back in time
You might have grown up, it's time to own up
You've had your lovers and yes I've had mine

But I love ya, I still want ya,
There's so much that I can give
If we were less demanding, a little more understanding
Together we can find a better way to live

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

Got a simple, simple heart that truly loves you
And though we may have our problems darling,
We'll make it through, yes we will
And as well, this simple heart of mine
Will always love you
Don't ask me how I know, I simply do

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you

My simple heart, my simple heart
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
My simple heart will always love you
