

Stardust

The Three Degrees

And now the purple dusk of twilight time
Steals across the meadows of my heart
High up in the sky, those little stars climb
Always reminded me when we're apart
You wandered down the lane
And far, so far away
Leaving me a song that just won't die
But love is now the stardust of yesterday
The music of the years gone by

Sometimes I wonder why I spend
The lonely nights dreaming of a song
The melody how it haunts my reverie
And I am once again with you
When our love was new
And each kiss an inspiration
But that was long ago
And now my constellation is in the stardust of a song
Beside the garden wall
Where stars are bright, you are in my arms
The nightingale tells his fairytale
How paradise where roses bloom
Though I dream in vain, in my heart it still remains
My stardust melody
The memory of love's refrain
