

Circle Line

The Tiger Lillies

I look into your eyes
You look up in surprise
Sitting on the Circle line

As you get up to leave
They take you by the sleeve
Sitting on the Circle line

They say you cannot change
Your journey's been arranged
Sitting on the Circle line

And you're not free to leave
Just free to be deceived
Sitting on the Circle line

See the whores and the virgins
The tea-totallers drinking gin
See the prisoners of faith
And make no mistake
We're sitting on the circle line
We're sitting on the circle line
